Speed Seduction Mastery Project
Mission 2 Live Lab
August 2026

Ross Jeffries

Welcome to our second meeting together. I want to welcome the new members, and this is really exciting for me. Before we get to the meat of this, the gist of it, I want to give you the general outline of how this works.

I will teach for about 10 minutes on a topic, and then we open it up to you, and you're going to share your questions about what you've been doing in the program. This is about implementation. I want you guys. I'm determined, not want. I am determined with everything I have to make sure you are out there in the real world using this stuff, not just memorizing it. If you saw my marketing, I talk about the memorization masturbators and the rusty dusty veterans who used to have success but don't anymore.

I want you guys out there implementing in the world, so it's really important that you share your stories, what your stuck points are. If it's legal in your state, country, whatever, to record audio, you can do that and then play it for me. I don't care. If you want to be called upon, Moderator, how do how should we organize it when people want to be called on? Should they just raise their hand like this, or if their video's off, or what do they do? Just say, "What do you suggest, Moderator?

Moderator

Theoretically, and you can call me Moderator. I just didn't change the display name. Theoretically, they should be using the raise hand feature, but that thing is always such a freaking pain in the ass. Just type in the chat window, Ross, call on me or something like that. And also, if you have a specific question, type it as pithily as possible, and we'll be watching and we'll capture them.

Ross Jeffries

Excellent. Okay, turn my phone off. Let me teach a little bit because this is a really important point. The attitudes that will help you really make speed seduction something you execute that you do in the field consistently are really, really important. I'm not talking about super confidence, performance confidence, knowing that you've done it right 1000 times, you've been with lots of women, and you know the next woman's going to like you, based on a reasonable prediction, based on your past experience. If you had that, you probably wouldn't be here.

I'm talking about an attitude towards life in general that most people don't have, and it's this: that you are determined to let your vision-I don't mean your eyes, your vision, your values, your bold experiments in the world-be the artists and the engineers and the architects and the designers of your life. This is an action orientation. The next thing I want to tell you is 99% of the people out there need a guarantee before they'll try anything new. That's just human nature.

But when you can try something new, when you're willing to commit to doing something new without needing that guarantee, and you can give the other person who you're interacting with radical permission. I'll unpack what that means for those who are not native English speakers. Radical permission to have their first response to you without accepting their first response as being their only one. You move through the world with tremendous power. No matter what your skill level is socially, or any of the rest of it, I'm going to illustrate with a story. It's one of my favorite all-time stories.

Please mute yourself. By the way, we I'm going to mute those of you who are not muted because it's kind of distracting. All right. So many years ago, at least 25 years ago, maybe longer, I had a student contact me. I don't remember how he did it. He said, "Will you take me out in field and teach me how to meet women?

And I didn't want to do it. It's exhausting. There's a lot of reasons I rarely do it. I said it's $10,000 cash. He's and he said, "Okay, can I come over Friday? I'll have the cash for you by then.

He brings me a big satchel, dumps it out. I quickly-it's all hundreds, so I sort it out and 10,000 dollars. I said, "Okay, let's go. I take him to a restaurant, and it has an outdoor patio, and he proceeds to get shot down by women, crash and burn. He has a drink thrown on him. He gets smacked, and he doesn't.

He's smiling the whole time. I give him credit for his attitude, but after a while, I was just so embarrassed. When the 90 minutes was up, I pulled him outside. Here comes the money shot, the meat of this story. We're standing out there in the parking lot. There's a lovely woman about 10 feet away, and we were waiting for our taxis.

Back then, there was no Uber or Lyft. And I said, "Look, there's a lovely lady waiting for her cab. And for some reason, she didn't like it. She started cursing at me, swearing at me, saying, "You motherfucker, drop dead! I hope if you ever have children, they die of cancer. And the motherfucking bastard, she was screaming at me, and I just stood there thinking, okay, this is how she shows her hurt and her anger.

She's not threatening me. I don't see any weapons. She's not moving like she's going to. She's not shifting her weight and squaring off on me. And I thought, okay, no problem. But my student was furious.

His face turned red with rage, and he went to charge at her, to scream at her. I put my arm out. I said, "No, no, she can do whatever she wants. We choose where we come from, and she's still screaming the whole time, guys. Just enraged. I said, "Look at her.

She's someone's sister. She's someone's daughter. She's someone's best friend somewhere. She's deeply loved. Now she stopped screaming. There was a look of total confusion on her face, and she broke into tears and came running over, threw her arms around me, and sobbed like a baby, and said, "I'm so sorry, men were pigs to me all night long.

Ross Jeffries

This had nothing to do with you. I could feel her body warming up. I could feel that she was getting turned on. I was getting it turned on too. She said, "I feel so much love in my heart for you. That's the most loving thing anyone ever said to you.

What's your name? Can I get your number? I said, "My name's mr. Wonderful. Our cab is here, and got in with my student and off we drove. What's the point of the story?

The point of the story is, I didn't know what was going to happen with that woman. I was willing to step into the unknown with my response. I didn't need a guarantee. I didn't make it about her. I didn't make it about me. First of all, I knew it wasn't my fault.

Second, I didn't think she's a bitch. She's got a bitch shield. Fuck her. I thought that's just the human being who's hurt, and this is how she shows her hurt by getting angry. She didn't cry. She got angry instead.

So here's the point of my story. I was willing to step into the unknown, I was keeping my cool because I didn't make it about me, and I watched her response without thinking that's her only her only response or her best response. When you walk through the world with this attitude, you have tremendous power because most people are very reactive. They don't know how to shift responses, and they don't know how to make it not about them. It's always about them. When in fact, when people are mean to you, it's almost always about their own pain, and very rarely is it about you.

All right. So with that, just type in the chat window me or whatever, and Moderator will tell me who it is, and then you can start sharing with me. But I want to make it about what you're actually doing, or questions about the assignments. Don't ask me general questions about what are you thinking, Neil Strauss and mystery and blah. I do not want to talk about that. So who would like to go first?

And this call, when people stop talking to me, the call is over. So who would like to contribute with a question or or don't be? I'm not going to yell at you. This is me being your friend and your helper. I'm no intention of being mean. You mean you guys are just gonna sit here with?

Okay, that's Student. Student, go ahead, talk away.

Student

Yeah. So I had a lot of self-generated internal resistance of going out and doing it. That I finally went out today, and I was unbelievably struck by looking at all of these drop dead gorgeous women in a specific area where I am, and. Finally, I walk in inside a luxury store where only women shop, and I finally did the Department of Defense script.

Ross Jeffries

Pause.

Student

Before I go,

Ross Jeffries

Student, pause right there. What were you feeling in your body right before you did it? Describe to me the sensations in your body before you did it. I felt a sense of oh, it's should I do it or not? It feels ridiculous. Okay, that's internal.

Student

Moderator

Ross Jeffries

That's internal dialog. That's not feeling. I'm asking things you feel in your body,

Student

like a stutter, a a jolt of like I almost like stuck, and then I push through, and I ask.

Ross Jeffries

No, no, I ask a different kind of question. I want. I'm going to get very microscopic and granular with her, with you. I'm not interrupting just to interrupt you. I'm doing it because there's a point behind it. I've been doing this a long time, so give me your trust just for a minute.

I promise. When you say you felt stuck, does that mean you felt like your feet were in cement? I don't know what what was going on with your breathing. What was going on with your muscles? The flow of sensation in your body. That's what I want to know.

Student

I don't remember completely. What I remember is, yes, I skipped. I think I skipped a heartbeat, and I, I was feeling okay. It's just that I was thinking of well, how is she going to react when I do it?

Ross Jeffries

Okay, now this is an example of this internal dialog getting in the way of you getting the actual skills. See, I'll give you a metaphor. May I teach a minute with a metaphor, Student?

Student

Yes, please.

Ross Jeffries

Do you have a refrigerator?

Student

I do.

Ross Jeffries

Does it do a good job of keeping food cold?

Student

Absolutely.

Ross Jeffries

Right. Do you have a flat screen TV?

Student

Yes.

Ross Jeffries

Does it do a good job of letting you watch Netflix, whatever you watch?

Student

Yes, it does.

Ross Jeffries

Good, great, because that's what it's designed to do, and the refrigerator is designed to keep food cold. Does your refrigerator do a great job of letting you watch Netflix?

Student

No, it doesn't.

Ross Jeffries

Does your flat screen TV keep your beer cold or whatever you like to drink? No, no, it doesn't. It's not designed to do that. So your internal dialog is not designed to give you social skills. It's designed for things like doing your taxes, or

Speaker 3

wow,

Ross Jeffries

if you're reading, it's just not designed to do that. It's not that there's anything wrong with you. It's just you're using an operating system that wasn't designed to run those application programs. So the application program of meeting women, getting women turned on, getting women to want to fuck you, blah blah blah. That application program doesn't run on this operating system. Does that make sense?

There's nothing wrong with you. You don't have a confidence problem or attraction problem. It's an issue of the operating system. So through the course of this and working together and all the rest of it, we're going to start out by changing that fucking operating system. That's why I interrupted you. So go ahead.

So you did this. You did Department of Defense. Did you do a pre-opener with her, or did you just walk right up and say, "Did you ever work with the Department of Defense?

Student

Well, I walked up to the cashier, and I asked a question about the store, and as she was talking, I and I said to myself, I have to I have to do the first opener, and I immediately went into it. Did you happen to work for the Department of Defense? And she said what? And then I repeated it loudly, and she started laughing, and she looked down, and then I said, "Because your eyes are weapons of mass distraction, and then she started laughing even harder.

Ross Jeffries

Good. What did you feel in your body? When she started laughing, when it landed really well, what was the sense in your body?

Student

I felt very, I felt very light.

Ross Jeffries

So, would you say you're breathing? I'm asking you leading questions. If the other, if this was a courtroom, the other attorney would object and say leading the witness. But I'm going to lead the witness. What was your breathing pattern? Where were you breathing from?

In the chest, in the belly. Where?

Student

I think from my abdomen, from my belly. Yes. Good.

Ross Jeffries

So your breathing shifted. So your breathing shift. Is it? I'm going to ask you an interesting, challenging question to think about after the call. Is it that you felt better and that shifted your breathing, or is it that you shifted your breathing and you felt better?

Student

I think I felt better, and then it automatically shifted the breathing.

Ross Jeffries

I want to suggest they happen simultaneously.

Student

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

your physiology, what you do with your body, your breath. I'm going to introduce some exercises tonight that you guys have never seen before or heard of. I'm willing to bet to help you when you feel anxiety before you approach, and we never approach. We only extend the gift of our masculine presence and offer and extend opportunities to connect with us in fun and powerful ways. But that being the case, all right. So, what was?

How did the conversation go after that?

Student

Well, then I then I said as she continued to laugh. Well, that was really cheesy, and then I couldn't remember the remaining script. So that's all right. What did she say to that.

Ross Jeffries

Student

She didn't. She just laughed, and then she. I think we both laughed. That's that's all I remember. Great job, everyone. Give him a round of applause. Great job. You went. You got into action. This is an important thing.

By going into action, you're training your brain to keep your promise to yourself. A man who keeps his promises to himself is a man who women automatically, without knowing why, will trust. Yes, they want you to keep their promises to them, but until they know you well enough, there's no opportunity to show that, but when you show up knowing deep inside that you're a man who keeps his promises to himself, that is invisibly attractive. No one can socially proof you out of that. Even guys who have a big social circle or have women around them, they don't have that.

You have it because you keep your promises to yourself. Hey, Moderator, I just came up with that. That's new material after I started in 1988. It is. I'm so pleased with myself. It is my math is bad.

You have a 38

Moderator

years.

Ross Jeffries

After 38 years, I'm still innovating.

Moderator

Well, I remember, I remember at one time when you were when I ran the very early when we knew each other, the Super Soaker, and you were guiding me on how to get her to meet me again or whatever. And I can't remember what you said, but then I remember you giggling, saying, "I just came up with that on the fly. Damn, I'm good.

Ross Jeffries

I am good. All right, Nanda, continue. So, how did you feel about yourself when you left that store?

Student

Oh, I was I was smiling for the next five minutes the whole time.

Ross Jeffries

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Good. It's a great free. It's a great feeling to be. I felt

Student

free. Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

that feeling of freedom is portable. You can take it anywhere. We're going to train you to take that feeling everywhere you go, because when you can walk without needing a guarantee, keeping your promises to yourself and have a sense of freedom that's internally generated that doesn't depend on the responses of other people, especially beautiful women, then you really get it that you can be a man who validates himself, the self-validating man who keeps his promises to himself, who honors his word to other people.

Student

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

that is attractive to women. They'll get that in here, subconsciously, unconsciously. I can't prove. I don't. I don't want to get into genetics or the rest of it. I don't.

I can't observe it. I can observe that they're attracted to it. I can't observe evolutionary programming. I think that's it's a soft science. What else? So, what did you do after that, Student?

Student

Well, after that, I walked outside and thought of approaching another one. I've seen some of your old videos, and I was thinking of doing a blurt out to a couple of women. Now, here's a mistake. I'm going to interrupt you again.

Ross Jeffries

Student

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

beginner's error is to take something that worked and then immediately jump to the next technique until they've mastered before they'd mastered the first one, Bruce. You know who Bruce Lee was?

Student

Yes,

Ross Jeffries

Bruce Lee said, "I'd rather fight a man who's done 1000 techniques once than a man who's done one technique 1000 times. So this is a rookie mistake. I my I'm gonna let you finish your story, but my point to you is keep practicing the Department of Defense thing until you get it, and then keep and then learn the follow up steps. Don't jump to another one. Go ahead. You have like five more minutes, and we need to move on.

So

Student

my my question for this process is this is kind of like the second time that this happened to me is I go on the opener, I do the opener, I get a response, and then my brain doesn't recollect the following script, which is the laughter pattern, and then

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.
May not be copied or reproduced without written permission from the creator.

Ross Jeffries

of course, it doesn't. You haven't given it enough repetitions. When you learned to walk, did you just immediately go from crawling to taking that first step and walking around the house? What happened?

Student

No, I started crawling on my belly and then crawling on my on my knees and then yeah it was a progression yeah so give yourself permission to notice what worked when you coach and train and mentor with me my friend I ram it into your brain that the first thing you're going to recognize is what did I do right? By the way, are the rest of you learning from what I'm teaching Student? Nod your head or type in the chat window. Fuck yeah! Okay, why I love it when you I teach and coach and mentor, everyone learns. So the first orientation you're going to begin to take on more and more is to notice what you did right first and foremost.

Ross Jeffries

Because I know we have people joining from Mongolia, people joining from the Netherlands, all over the place. But in Western culture, when we learn, at least when I was a kid, the first thing they did is mark on the paper what we did wrong. We are a society, a culture that looks at what we do wrong first, and that's a mistake. All right, Student, your time is up, but I know you joined at a much more exclusive level, so we'll be talking to each other a lot more. I'm very happy that you're here with us. Thank you,

Student

Ross.

Ross Jeffries

All right, who else would like to go? Just type me in the chat window. Okay, that is done. Done. Student out. Yes, go ahead.

Student

Student out. Yes. So basically, I mean, you explain kind of the whole thing, but you know, one of the lessons you taught us was like to speak slowly. That really helped me with with kind of like shaking a little bit less and be more confident, but tell me more about that. How did how did you apply the how did you learn to speak more slowly? What did you do? Did you drill it or did you automatically just speak slower?

Ross Jeffries

Student

I just practice even like even with my male friend at work. I just try to speak slowly because I know a lot of times I kind of rush. Brother, listening to this man, I tell you, he is a wise man. He's practicing with everyone everywhere. Good, keep going.

Ross Jeffries

Student

Yeah, but as you mentioned, like those voices that come to our head, so those are kind of it's kind of coming on my way. So that last night when I approached that gear in the parking lot, the first one, this Hispanic one, I was still a little bit shaking, but

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.
May not be copied or reproduced without written permission from the creator.

Ross Jeffries

that shaking. Can I suggest something? Can I tell you a story?

Student

Yes.

Ross Jeffries

I had the most. I've been with some beautiful women. Trust me, the most beautiful woman I've ever been with. She. Was 18. I was 61.

Moderator, did I ever show you pictures of Jade?

Moderator

I've met the woman personally, and I've seen a couple of the pictures that I will never admit that I saw. Ah, yeah. She's. Would you say she's beautiful?

Ross Jeffries

Moderator

On my scale of one to 10, and mine is weird. Let's just say that I put her at about a nine.

Ross Jeffries

Trust me, she's hot, horrible light, but hot. I kept her around because she's just so good looking in her ass. Anyway, she said something to me. She said, "Paul, because that's my name. Why is it when guys see me, they start shaking? I said they're shaking with lust.

They're feeling so much sexual energy, and at the same time, they're tightening. They're they're trying to tighten up to control it, and that creates friction in their body. So I just want to let you know that shaking, Student, is not fear. It's just a lot of energetic charge going on. If there is a fat, ugly, disgusting woman, she weighed 300 kilos. She was four feet tall.

She had a mustache with cookie crumbs in it and snot running down her nose. Would you feel that kind of shaking if you had to talk to her?

Student

Probably. not. Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

absolutely not.

Student

Absolutely, maybe. But like the thing is, I don't know. It's maybe because of the culture I grew up in. Like I sometimes I kind of it comes to my mind. I'm destroying somebody else's boundary.

Ross Jeffries

You're what?

Student

Like I'm like going to somebody else's boundaries. Like I'm.

Ross Jeffries

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.
May not be copied or reproduced without written permission from the creator.

You are

Student

breaking. So that kind of I feel like something. I'm doing something bad to somebody. You know.

Ross Jeffries

Can I explain something

Student

to you? Sure.

Ross Jeffries

You're not invading their boundary. You're expanding their boundary to include you. I'll say it again. It's not that you're destroying their wall. You're expanding their their boundary to include you. Sure.

And some of you, and this is not just Student. Is it Student? Student, how do you pronounce?

Student

Student was correct the first time.

Ross Jeffries

Student, Student. A lot of you are waiting for. Think you need permission from the woman, like a smile or a hello or eye contact. Those things are all great, but you think you need permission from her before you approach her. I'm saying the way in which you approach creates the permission. The cause and effect are reversed.

I'm telling you, the effect is actually the cause. The way in which you-I don't like the word approach. The way in which you extend that invitation to connect creates the permission. The permission does not create the connection. You've got it backwards. That's why you've been having a problem up till now.

Keep going. I'm on fire tonight, Uncle Moderator. Moderator is godfather to my cats. Okay,

Moderator

Student. I think I pronounced your name right.

Speaker 5

Almost

Moderator

okay. All right. So I only-I just said that one time. You know who you are. All right. So in the school group, about an hour ago, I left a comment on one of your on one of your posts in the community forum.

I'm not going to take up the time on this because you can, and everybody here can just go read it. I just want to make a. Oh yeah, I just want to. Yeah, I just want to make a general observation about myself. So I spent years with the internal committee meeting. The you know arguing with myself when I found somebody interesting, why I shouldn't walk across the room, even as I'm taking the steps, the entire Senate subcommittee hearing on over whether I should call the woman when I got her number.

I mean, we could go on and on and on and on and on. And what I finally recognized is, just go seriously, just go in. What I wrote in response to you was a very early manifestation of that I did not fully recognize and appreciate for what it was until years later, and right now I'm in a situation where over the past year my life has pretty much detonated out from under me.

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

I had a nice thing that was just catching its stride socially in Las Vegas, then my business exploded in the sense that I got diagnosed with cirrhosis and almost died of medical malpractice, and meantime didn't wasn't able to maintain the business, so I lost Las Vegas. Yep, I lost Las Vegas. I ended up back here in Podunk in Pennsylvania with my family because I needed a. Caretaker and a safety net for a while. I'm actually fairly comfortable here, but I hate the weather. And I'm also in a rural area, and I don't have my own car yet, so I'm pretty limited in what I can do.

So whenever I do have a social situation, I see her. I'm going. I mean, because I don't know. Is she single? Is she married? She have a boyfriend.

Is she interested? She's not interested. The point being is, rather than me debate it internally, I just include her in the conversation. I mean, what's the absolute worst that can happen? She laughs in your face or dramatically turns her back on you and pretends you're not there. Okay, just look around, or maybe next time.

So while I'm kind of temporarily moored away from society in general physically, I'm doing a lot of things to prepare myself for when I'm in a position where I can hit the streets again. So starting my literary career, building a a new personal brand and presence. So even though my days mostly consist of either playing with my cats or sitting out on the porch in my cigar on my laptop with a cigar, building nine things at once, I there's something there. So when I do see that woman, she's going to be able to look me up in five seconds and say, "Yeah, there's a complete dude there.

Plus, I'm going to have plenty to talk about. So, what you said inspired me not only in the group, but what you said here on this call, and I think this is for everybody: is essentially start with where you are, what you can be doing right now. In my situation, I can't meet women. I mean, I can play online and maybe something happens. I've done that successfully before, but I can't even get away from the house without without a chauffeur who happens to be my mom. So that's not going to help me unless I step into a Hallmark Christmas movie scene, which I'm not going to do.

But what can I be doing right now? I can be practicing my skills wherever I can find them online. I can be building myself up. I can be doing introspection and finding any layers of stuff that I can be working on now. and when I am back on the streets again, and I'm seeing women on a regular basis, fuck it, I'm just going.

Student

Awesome,

Ross Jeffries

good, love it. By the way, guys, I was on my phone looking for the pictures of that 18 year old. I couldn't find him. That's why I was on my phone. I wasn't trying to ignore you. Yeah.

All right, Student, continue. You had more to say.

Student

Oh, just one more last thing, maybe. So, you know, I have a little bit of accent. I don't speak English like American, right? And one thing was bothering me, like just saying the Department of Defense to white American girls. That was like kind of, I don't know, with my accent, I was in your

Ross Jeffries

head. That this

Student

is

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Ross Jeffries

this is all a projection. That's your internal dialog in here, talking to you. So I'm going to give you a little thing to practice. I learned this from my mentor Richard Bandler, who is the co-creator of neuro-linguistic programming? That little voice in your head that says, "She, what if she thinks I'm a creep, or I, she'll think I'm a terrorist, or I'm white girls want that too.

Speaker 5

She'll

Ross Jeffries

think I'm a terrorist.

Speaker 6

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

here's you do let that voice talk to you. Don't change what it says, but give it a real sexy tone, like "ooh, she'll think I'm a terrorist. She'll never like me. Go ahead, try it now, not out loud, but hear yourself in your head talking. But put that kind of tone to it, like "ooh, she'll think I'm a terrorist. She won't like me.

Do it.

Student

So should I say it? Huh? Should I say it or just practice it?

Ross Jeffries

No, just practice it in your head right now.

Student

It's very funny.

Ross Jeffries

Can you be upset when you do it that way?

Student

Yeah, no.

Ross Jeffries

So that's what you do. If that internal dialog comes up, just put a sexy voice to it. Like, ooh, I'm way too dark skinned for her. She'll think I'm going to do a suicide. I have a million tricks up my sleeve. You guys may think you're stuck, and but I have a million keys to pick your locks, so don't worry about it.

Don't worry about it. What else? You have a few more minutes before we move to the next question.

Student

I'm good. Thank you so much. Isn't this great? This is totally worth the money, isn't it? Like absolutely. You'll never get to talk to mystery or Neil Strauss or the rest of. When am I bringing them up? I said no bringing them up.

Ross Jeffries

All right, that was my mistake. I'll poke myself in the eye. God damn it! All right, next.

Moderator

All right, next me gets the mic. Keep going, Ross.

Ross Jeffries

Yeah, let's keep going. I who's next? Ike

Moderator

Said the next me gets the gets the gets the mic. So somebody type me so we can get to keep the show going. I'm having a lot of fun here. I want to stay the whole hour. Come on, guys! I already did my two bits.

I heard of me.

Student

Ross.

Ross Jeffries

Who was that? Student

Student

Ross.

Ross Jeffries

Yes, I can. Who is this? Who is

Student

it?

Ross Jeffries

Hi. Hi. Hi. Welcome. Welcome aboard.

Student

Hey, what's up, man? Welcome aboard. Been a long time since that letter.

Ross Jeffries

Hi. Welcome aboard! I'm glad to see ya. All the bitches are gonna scream when you take out your big thing and swing it around. They'll fall to the ground and get on your knees and crawl around the block just to take take a rich big pop.

Student

Oh yeah, man! I'm not

Ross Jeffries

jiving, and I'm not joking. I'm not shooting, and I'm not smoking. I am telling all of you: they soon will be drinking all of Ike's goo. He'll spray it on their titties. He'll spray it in space. He'll spray it all over their ass in every place.

They'll beg for it. They'll scream for it. Say, please do me. My man. Here's my sister. Will you screw me?

No, that doesn't work. Go ahead, Ike. How can I help you?

Ike

Yeah, man. It's been a long time since the Atlanta seminar, man. And hey, it's time for a tune-up and for me to really focus in. So I'm not gonna hold everybody's time up right now. Oh

Ross Jeffries

no no no no no! Wait wait wait the Atlanta seminar was like when was that in the

Student

'90s? Nope, 2012, 2012.

Ross Jeffries

Yeah, that was my little ex girlfriend was there.

Student

Oh, okay. Hey, remember I did the Barry White voice on her? I don't remember, but no, I still talk to her. She was a mean girl. She was the meanest girlfriend I ever had. Oh wow! When we got into fights, I'm six two. She's 410.

Ross Jeffries

She would reach under my shirt, rip my chest hair out, and throw it in my face. But it turned me on. I didn't dump her because I liked it.

Student

Yep. But yeah, I'm not gonna ask anything now because again, I'm no. That's fine. You're not ask ask away. You paid good money, so you ask.

Ross Jeffries

Student

Yeah, no, no, no. I'm running late and I'm driving, but trust me, I'll be asking a lot and participating a lot.

Ross Jeffries

All right, now you swing. Explain

Student

what I'm here.

Ross Jeffries

When I swings that thing, the bitches it brings. But he's smart. He's very smart. He sets them apart. The ones with the STDs don't get.

Student

Oh yeah, don't even get

Student

a start. Get

Ross Jeffries

started. Don't get the clap or let them trap because bitches be crazy. See, he goes all the way back. He's back. See, he's a rusty dusty veteran. Did I call that right, Moderator.

Moderator

We got it perfectly right. We we we keep saying it a couple different ways. I go with rusty, dusty, lusty, veteran. I mean, it's. I mean, the whole the whole the whole point is, you rocked it once, and you want to rock it again. Some shit happened in the meantime, and to a degree, you're still replaying the old stories, but you're not creating new ones.

And you want to get out there, and you want to make a sequel.

Ross Jeffries

There you go. Absolutely. Okay, next, me. He's gonna detonate in her. Come on, guys! I'm enjoying this.

Me, anybody? You paid good money to be here. What do you think, Lala? They maybe I can find a picture of Jade, the 18. Does anyone want to see the 18 year old pictures of her naked? No.

Come on, guys, ask a question. Everyone's typing yes. You fucking perverts. You're here to learn from me. Come on. All right.

If you don't want to ask me a question, someone who didn't ask a question summarize what I taught. One of the guys, put it into your own words. What I taught. Anybody?

Moderator

Okay, Student Hayes is saying me. Student, step up to the mic. Unmute yourself.

Student

Yes. Good morning from Mongolia. Can you see me? Hear me?

Ross Jeffries

Yeah.

Student

Yes.

Speaker 6

Wow.

Ross Jeffries

Can you see her?

Student

Yeah. Great.

Ross Jeffries

That was my 18-year-old girlfriend. Look how big those titties are! They're popping out of the suit. Do you see? Damn it! I have some naked.

I know I do. Just go. Wait a minute. There she is. There is nothing like a perfect 18-year-old body riding on top of you. Sometimes I would be too tired to fuck.

I'd just have her stand there, and I'd slap her ass and slap her belly while I jerked off. This is sick. Go ahead. Sorry, I am an old fuck. Go ahead.

Student

Good morning, everybody. From greetings from Mongolia. I have maybe a question which just came to my mind that if there is any advice how we can approach or date girls who can't speak very English, you know, because you can even speak to girls who speak very well English, but these been fact by many many expat and foreigners. But if you want to have like pure Mongolian girl, they barely know any English. Is there any kind of way how to communicate without the most important thing? Your question is revealing to me that there are fundamental things you don't yet understand. The nature of your question is telling me things that you need to learn. So the first thing you need to learn is I don't care if she's Mongolian, Israeli, Japanese, Chinese, from Paraguay, from Hawaii. Doesn't fucking matter. All women, all women think of certain things.

They think of connection. They think of being swept off their feet by a powerful man. They fantasize about doing things that they don't. Don't write it down. You'll have the recording. Pay attention to me.

The way in which you learn is getting in your way too. They have certain themes that attract them from all over the world. I don't care where they're from. I'm sure in Mongolia people read fiction. There are bookstores. There's the equivalent of there's a place online where you can order books, right?

The number before Harry Potter came along, and you've heard of Harry Potter, right? You know Harry Potter. Before Harry Potter came along and ruined it, the most popular form of fiction that outsold science fiction, true crime, romance novels, romance novels written for women, often usually by women, but not always. These are the kind of things that women think about. So, yes, you're right. Some of the ambiguities, like below me and below me, won't translate.

But the basic ways of using language and the basic principles of speed seduction. Look here. Don't take notes. Get the understanding from me directly. The basic principles of capturing and leading her imagination. The basic principles that you don't try to get behavior like a phone number or fuck.

You're aiming at creating emotional states. When you get a woman in the right emotional state and the feeling in her body, if she's feeling turned on in her body and picturing fucking you, you don't have to try to get her to fuck you. She's gonna fuck you. Do you understand? Those kind of understandings are cross-cultural all over the world. You're right.

You're going to have to work a little bit harder than everyone else in this room to translate some of the ambiguities like blow me, below me, new direction, nude erection. They may not translate, but you'll have ones that I don't have in English, I'm sure there are words in Mongolian that sound that use the same word, but it can mean two different things. I'm sure in Swedish, the word "gift" can either mean marriage or poison. I'm not joking with you, so I'm sure there are ambiguities like that. You'll just have to. I don't know Mongolia, and never will learn it.

I've seen a couple Mongolian girls. They're beautiful. They're fucking beautiful. I and I just don't know it. Does that answer your question?

Student

Basically, yes and no. I mean, as you said, it's not about Mongolia in general. Whenever you live abroad, and you want to approach girls who don't speak English and you don't speak their language, if there is any cue, how can you approach the girls who you don't share the same language with? Is there is some way?

Ross Jeffries

Well, if you give me $50,000, I'll teach you telepathy. You're asking, I can do magic. I can't do miracles. I can do. It's not real magic. It's engineering.

You're engineering emotions. But if there's no common way to communicate, and there's no tran, don't don't you have like a translator program, there are there are real cheap devices. Google Digital Recorder

Copyright © Ghita Services, Inc. All Rights Reserved.
May not be copied or reproduced without written permission from the creator.

Translator. Okay, I found this on the web for Digital Recorder Translator. Check it out. Okay, there's something here called A R.

R A I R I. It's an AI smart translator note taker voice recorder. So you record your message, you select the language, you press the button, it plays it in her language, and then you can play with the phone that way. But that's that's a new device. I don't know how it works. I'm sure it's user friendly, but that's my best answer for you.

Okay. Anyone else? I'm enjoying this. I think I'll reward myself with a. I don't know what am I going to eat. I don't know something bad for me that my trainer would be very angry.

But so that now, getting back to this girl, just for a second, I want to ask you: Is that a pretty face and a hot body? Would you guys say yes? Wait, you haven't. You want to see more? I hear you say. Look at that ass!

Wait, I buried my face in that. But my question is, on a scale of one to 10, she was a 10, and I was like a a five. I'm 61. She's 18. She, nor having assessed a woman's pulchritude in person, I affirm and affirm she's objectively okay. Very good.

So, did I do it on my looks, guys. No, did I do it on money? No, I had some of the time, but I didn't spend it on her, at least not initially. I did it because I know how emotions can be structured with language. You can learn the same stuff. Now I would prefer a woman in her mid to late 30s who's in great shape, who knows how to fuck, and has a fully formed brain.

But there you go. Enough about me. Let's make it about you. What do you think about me? Let's keep going. So, Student Ross likes caramel too.

Respect. Respect indeed, Student. I have to introduce you to my VIP VIP client, Deputy Dog. I'll call him Deputy Dog. He is a chocolate lover. I call him Massa, Massa Deputy Dog.

Yeah. All right. Any more? Come on, guys. I'm energized. I'm an old man.

I'm going to be 68 September 20th, and I've got more energy than all of you. Student. Hi, Student. Lele, where are you? Where did you go, you stupid cat? Oh, she jumped in her box.

She's in her her magic box. Anything else? Come on, guys. Me, Student, you're back.

Student

When Student

Ross Jeffries

the magician, Student the magician.

Student

Ross, when there are two women, two girls walking together, is there, is it the same? It's the same script, or do you have a different script for approach?

Ross Jeffries

Walking together, yes. Walking's difficult because you try you're alongside and you got to try to get them to stop. I don't recommend that, but let's say there are two girls sitting together. I'll give you guys a secret. Y'all, y'all want to know a secret where you'll be surrounded by women, and you don't have to walk up to them? Would you like to know that secret?

Student

Yes,

Ross Jeffries

it's only applicable in Western, and I would say in the United States. Type me if you've heard a brunch. B R U N C H. Me, okay. Go to brunch. Bring a wingman, and 90% of the people at a brunch are girls gathered around a table.

So bring a wingman and just lean over and give one of them a compliment, or lean over and say, "Hey, you guys, I know you're you're talk you're talking. We're sorry to interrupt. We're just having an argument about women and men, and my friend here was saying, "Blah blah blah. And then I'll I'll give a language pattern next. And yeah, so that's why that's one tip there. Just talk to the woman, introduce yourself, and then just start talking to the woman you're attracted to.

That's what I do. I ignore the other one,

Student

but that's God.

Ross Jeffries

But Student, we don't want you to start there. I want you to start easy. Do you understand? Then we can go into more complex situations. But I like that you're eager, that you can't wait to try try stuff out. That's that's definitely a plus.

Student

Well, what I was thinking is that there quickly, when these there was these three hot women wearing cow cowgirl boots and skirts, beautiful beautiful women. I was just thinking in my brain if I stop them and ask, hey, each one of them. Hey, who do you think has dressed the most stylish today? Would you know what I would do? I'd be real ballsy. Excuse me, I'm sorry to up you, ladies, but have you have all of you you all have all of you raced Formula One, and they're gonna look at you like you're crazy, and you say because you all got some dangerous curves, and then when you said when you say when they laugh, you say okay that was really cheesy, but you all just look so radiant and like you're having so much fun here and in life, I had to come up and introduce myself and say hi. My name is Student. Try that out. Try something like that.

Speaker 6

All right,

Ross Jeffries

that's my other great one. Do I use that on curvy women, not fat women? I don't like fat women, but women who have extra curves, like big kits, like really big tits, I'm not going to say, "Hey, you! How big are your cups? No, but it's a clever way to say you've got big tits. A clever way.

They'll laugh because they know what you really mean. They they know you mean you sure got some big titties, baby. But you're being clever about it. And women who have big tits love it, love the fact that they have big tits. They call them the girls or the twins. Yeah, say, do you race Formula One?

And it'll look like you're in sync. And then you say, because you sure got some dangerous curves. Don't stare at her titties, by the way, when you say it. That'll get you punched. See the subtle difference. If you say it by looking at her in the eye, that's one thing.

If you say it looking at her kids, that's quite another. You can say the same thing, same tone, but the look can make all the difference. I'm I'm having so much fun here. You know, guys, I used to operate at this intensity when I was a much younger man for three straight days and two full evenings. That's way before the time I knew you, Moderator. But you get older and things slow down.

You just can't do what you used to. But for 90 minutes, I sure as hell can. All right, let's take a couple more.

Moderator

He wants in.

Ross Jeffries

Come on in. After you all, but enjoying this for sure. He the man. Women see him and they say, "Yes, I can drop my panties, spread my thighs. When I see that big snake, it won't be a surprise because I can see it bulging from his pants.

That's what makes my clitoris dance.

Student

And when I next time we get on the call, I'm pretty sure you you probably don't remember, but I told you about the first time I used one of your patterns.

Ross Jeffries

No, tell us.

Student

Okay, I'll say it real quick, and then I'm get out of here. First time I use one of your patterns. Oh man, I can't even remember which one it was. I think incredible connection. Anyways, um, I um put I was playing you on the um CD. I put the headphone on one ear, and I called the girl, and I got her answer machine.

So I said, "I'm going to do it. I'm going to do it. I don't care. So I just listened to you and matched your tonality, the slowness, everything you did. Now look what happened. I she immediately when she heard the message, she called me and man, she cussed me out.

And I was like, oh man, I did it wrong. Oh man, I was so worried about it. About it wasn't even. I'll say two days, but you know, calendar days. But it wasn't even two days later. She called me up, breathing hot as hell, and said, "What are you doing?

I was like, "Just laying here. She said, "You need to get over here right now. I went over there, man, and shit. I've been I've been screwing her from this ever since then.

Ross Jeffries

You're screwing her from what?

Student

Ever since then, and this was one. Ever

Ross Jeffries

since then,

Student

yep. In fact, I just recently turned her down because now she's too old for me. I don't go. She's she's getting up there, so I can't.

Well done, thou good and faithful student. Come into the kingdom of pussy, prepared for you for you from the beginning of the world, by the great gray cat Sargey himself.

Student

Absolutely,

Ross Jeffries

verily I say unto you, Sarge, without end, Amen. And you shall see the great gray cat coming in the clouds of glory with the pink poon paradise that you have inherited, Sarge, without end. Now I. I, I want you to put your hand to the screen right now and say, "Hallelujah, Sargey! Just say it,

Student

"Hallelujah, Sargey.

Ross Jeffries

I feel the power of the pink tune in the room.

Student

I feel the power of the pink tone in the room.

Ross Jeffries

Amen. Amen. No more hesitation.

Student

Oh yeah, absolutely.

Ross Jeffries

Say it. No more. No more.

Student

No more hesitation.

Ross Jeffries

No more masturbation.

Student

No more masturbation.

Ross Jeffries

Only foration. Only for an education.

Student

Only for all that occasion.

Ross Jeffries

No more fatties.

Student

No more fatties.

No more uggugs.

Student

No more uggugs.

Ross Jeffries

No more war pigs.

Student

No more war.

Ross Jeffries

Only one year old who wants a dick that knows what it's doing. That's big and thick and black. Oh yeah! Split them right open. They want that chocolate every night and day. Way back when you were going strong after that seminar, how many did you fuck?

Student

Oh man, shit. Well, hell, I lived near U of M. Well, at that time. I'm in Seattle now. Man, hell! Every shit, I line at least a two or three up every fall when you know they get there, and um, hell, I shit, at least 20, man.

It's it's I'm pretty sure it's more than that, but at least 20 for sure.

Ross Jeffries

Were any of them super hot and super? Oh hell

Student

yeah! Oh hell yeah!

Ross Jeffries

What's your age? What's the record for age spread? Legal, legal, legal. Yeah,

Student

I don't. Oh yeah, 18. Oh yeah,

Ross Jeffries

1818,

Moderator

Oh yeah, 18.

Student

Yep, I'm at 18.

Ross Jeffries

I'm having fun tonight. I'm a little manic. I better take double.

Student

All right, fellas, I see you guys next next call. Hallelujah!

There he does. See, Moderator, there's a customer I've had I had back in 2012, and he's still on the list. I remember him. I remember him. I mean, when I saw the name come up in the reports, it's like I wasn't in Atlanta, but like I know this dude. This and I don't. We don't have all the records anymore, but I immediately. Clicked in my mind, seminar somewhere within my lifetime with your company.

Moderator

Ross Jeffries

This is living proof that we have gold in this there list when we wake it up. There's so many brothers who don't even know I'm still out there. They probably think I'm dead or permanently gone. So we're gonna wake them up and remind them and get the power of Sargy and retake the seduction community. Say amen, brothers. Lift your fist up to the camera.

I want to see y'all do it right now. Do it and say I'm horny as hell and I won't take it anymore.

Moderator

I'm taking it, giving it,

Ross Jeffries

guys. You don't get pussy. You donate your dick. Write that down. I never get pussy. I donate my dick.

Student, are you enjoying this? Student, you haven't budged or smiled. Are you enjoying this?

Moderator

Thumbs up, baby.

Ross Jeffries

Thumbs up. Good.

Moderator

Yeah. All hey. All. All I can say is, you know, I, I got to admit, I still have one of those patterns from the old days. I put women on pedestals.

Student

Student, are you enjoying this? I am absolutely loving it for sure. I'm absolutely loving it. I just know if I, I was, I was, I've been smiling. Are you kidding? He sounds like the guy, and I want to say one other thing.

Remember you posting pictures on Facebook of Xandra, and I remember thinking to myself, "Damn, she's fucking hot. So yeah.

Ross Jeffries

All right, you think you think Xandra's hot? Hold on, Moderator. You know what I'm about to do?

Moderator

I do not know what you're about to do. Tell us what you're about to do. Preach from the mountain.

Ross Jeffries

Um. Well, she was from Ecuador.

Moderator

Oh boy, I see the sun coming over a suncione. Oh, is that the capital of Paraguay? You. How did you know that,

Moderator

Tammy?

Ross Jeffries

Oh, you looked it up. You,

Moderator

yeah, Tam. Tammy's Ecuadorian.

Ross Jeffries

Oh, she is.

Moderator

Yeah.

Ross Jeffries

Let's see if I can find, guys. This is worth it.

Moderator

Bring it! Doing it, doing it, doing it now.

Ross Jeffries

Hold on, guys.

Moderator

Oh shit! Oh shit!

Ross Jeffries

Guys, it's worth it.

Student

Uh oh.

Ross Jeffries

Here we go! I'm such a bastard. Hold on, it's worth it, guys.

Moderator

Yeah, after we're done with this, Student one's back.

Ross Jeffries

Okay, I promise I'm not gonna abandon anyone.

Moderator

All right, just letting you know that we stole somebody in queue.

Ross Jeffries

Here we go. You guys will not regret this.

Student

Paul, Paul, can I ask if you have any advice, like if if we are dating like two or three girls in the same time to kind of tell them legally, and not they make them angry that they should accept it because somehow make sure. Well, make sure that you tell them. Don't lie about it. Tell. Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

Student

I told them they've been pretty angry, but lately they accept it. But if there is some more polite way how to open this with them, to yeah, because I think the end.

Ross Jeffries

Yes, let me answer your question. You simply say before you infuck them, I'm not looking for one girlfriend. If you want to be with me, you have to accept it. Can you guys see my screen?

Moderator

It's coming up. It's coming up. Says started screen sharing. Ah, yeah, I've seen that one. Okay, this girl was 22, one of the best fucks of my life, and a squirter. But I was the first man to make her squirt. She thought she was going to pee. I said, "You're not going to pee. You're going to squirt.

Ross Jeffries

Her name was Dora. Dora just wanted sex. She would come over. We'd fuck like scalded rabbits, and then she said, "Well, I have to go home and take care of my sister. So it was pretty much sex, and I wanted to take her to dinner. She said, "Don't spend your money on me.

I thought, "Well, I got a shitty deal here. Watch this." You know how much money I spent on Dora?

Moderator

Oh, cup of coffee, maybe.

Ross Jeffries

Not even that. Dora met me at an event. She said my pussy was wet the second I saw you. I thought, okay, look at that body, guys! Look at the curve of the back. She has one of the most perfect pussies I've ever seen.

You know, have you guys ever seen those beef curtain pussies where the lips are all mangled?

Moderator

I just had my second dinner. Don't no.

Ross Jeffries

For those of you seen one yet, look at that!

Moderator

Oh yeah.

Ross Jeffries

Okay, enough. This is getting pornographic. Soft core point. All right, enough of let's stop the share. Oh, guys, I want you to meet one of the two most important women in my life. You'll be seeing a lot of her.

This is Moderator's niece. This is the smartest animal I've ever had the pleasure to serve more than a dog, more than any other cat. She is super smart. The other week, she locked me in my bedroom from the outside. I had to call the neighbor to let me out.

I'm not kidding.

Moderator

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

that face, guys.

Moderator

Uh huh. Yeah, she she reminds me of a combination of your nieces. It's like somehow both of them are inside her.

Ross Jeffries

Guys, if you don't have a cat, get

Moderator

100\. yeah. I mean, when I lived in Las Vegas, I mean, I can pull up pictures for people sometimes, and they like shoes at your house, she was at your house. Wait, you had three dominations over for dinner. You know what got them all there? My Thai pineapple vegetable fried rice recipe and my cats. It was those two things put together.

I mean, all I had to do was mention the recipe, or I've got cats.

Ross Jeffries

And I've known you 19 years. You never made me fried rice, fucker.

Moderator

Well, I have to modify it now because I can't have soy sauce anymore. But next time we're together, I already have the I already have the adaptation. We'll do it.

Ross Jeffries

All right. Anything else before I go get my real dinner? I had a couple eggs before this. Just

Moderator

I have a quick observation actually, and again, I'm not assuming the coaching role here. I'm sharing a personal experience because you're the coach. This whole thing with multiple women, I used to, I used to like worry about that, like, oh, what if they find out, and et cetera, et cetera, et cetera. And then a few years ago, like around 2021, I discovered an embryo. It was imperfect, and I didn't quite know what I was doing, but I still achieved it. I had like six women going at the same time.

One of them was Kitty, and I still haven't told you what happened to her, but I'll tell you sometime. You're gonna, you're gonna, it'll blow your mind how how she just abruptly disappeared, but they all knew about each other, and the way that I did it was twofold.

One of which was I just told them, and in another, and then part of it is if I found they had like certain things in common, like you know professionally, whatever, I just introduced them, so I just normalized the fact that there was one more than one woman in Moderator's life, and they actually more than anything else, they just expressed curiosity about each other to me. That was it.

Ross Jeffries

I'll tell you guys. Forgive me. Tell me when you're concluded, because I want to.

Moderator

What's that?

Ross Jeffries

Tell me when you're done because there's something else. I'm done, guys. When you know how to give them multiple like crazy orgasms, unlike anyone in their life, they you tend to have the negotiating power. Is what I'll say. It puts you in the position of being the one who's got this superior negotiating power. That's that's all I wanted to say.

God damn it! No, I have another one getting bumped up. God damn it!

Moderator

Oh no!

Ross Jeffries

I'm not going to share that one, guys. Because you signed up early, you did get your special report, her best ever, right? Did you? You guys have everybody's eligible.

Moderator

Ross Jeffries

Did did any of you grab it and actually listen to it? Did you? Yeah, that's Dora who's getting thumb fuck. I'm using my thumb on her. It doesn't sound familiar, but I do have your rapid success and power with women, and I think there's something in a bonus that's kind of like that.

Student

Moderator

Yeah, yeah, and Student has more, by the way. He has more.

Ross Jeffries

When you say legally, I don't know what that means. Other two, but legally, it's not illegal to fuck more than one woman. If it offends them, so what? If thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, as Jesus would say. If it offends them, then it offends them. There's always more women.

You can only have cats are unique. I'll never be able to replace her. Did you hear her meow when I said that? Raise your hand if you heard her meow. Cats are unique. I can never replace this baby, but women, there's always another one coming along.

Look, how many people are there in the world now, like check out my shirt.

Moderator

Got zaddy issues, free hugs.

Um, there are something like four and a half billion pussies in the world. Don't worry about it.

Moderator

You know, we actually did the math on this. I'm gonna have to pull. I mean, I'll have to pull up the old blog post and update the numbers. But I think the number is something like if you had one every day, you would have to live something like 40 lifetimes just to get through them all.

Ross Jeffries

I don't know.

Moderator

Yeah,

Ross Jeffries

you can be in my lap. All right, all right, but your claws are sharp. Look at this little baby, Uncle Moderator. Ah, your claws, baby. I got you. No need to dig in.

I

Moderator

haven't. I haven't met her. I haven't met her in person yet, but I'm going to get out there somehow.

Ross Jeffries

Look at this, guys. She wants to be rocked and held like a baby. She's a the clingiest girl I've ever had in my life, including girlfriends. No, this one was more clingy. All right, anything else, guys? Her claws need to be terribly God.

Okay, baby, go down, go down, go down.

Student

Yeah.

Ross Jeffries

All right. If there are no more, then I'm going to conclude this. Welcome. For those of you who was it was their first meeting, what do you think? Did you enjoy it? Yes.

Thank you, Sultan of Schwing. I am the Sultan of Schwing. All right, Moderator. Thank you for being here by my side for the 19th year. Moderator and I have been working for 19 fucking years. We've had our ups, we've had our downs, we've seen each other through some serious shit.

I didn't know you when my mother died. My father died, did I?

Moderator

Not when Dad died, when Mom died.

Ross Jeffries

My mother died. Yeah, that was a tough time. Tough time. All right. Thank you all. We'll catch you on the next one.

This is recorded. Oh wait.

Oh, all has one last question. Wait a minute.

Student

Sorry. So last for the last month, I think we also recorded it, and also for today, how we can see them because

Moderator

I will post the link for you. I mean, the other one's up already, and Tracy will be adding the other one shortly.

Student

Okay, thank you so much.

Ross Jeffries

Sure. Now we don't store them on the school group because school has strict rules about explicit content, and they could see it and just disappear the group. So we post in a separate area.

Moderator

Yeah, yeah, they're on a top secret webpage. So only you guys have the link. Don't share it with anybody. Rather than put you through the process of having yet another membership and another login, we just buried it deep, so you don't have to remember another set of passwords. But just don't tell anybody. I have a great team. Yeah. All right, guys. Thanks. Good night.

Ross Jeffries

All right. Good night from San Diego, California.
