Speed Seduction Mastery Project
Module 1 Week 4

Welcome to Mission Four for Month One. I call this one "Make Your Day and Walk Away."

This is where you're going to have an interaction with a woman who's either average or beautiful. I don't care which it is. The whole point is not to get a phone number, a date, sex, or whatever it is. The point is to validate her.

I know the other schools teach, "Don't validate." I'm here to tell you that if you validate another person on a deep, human-to-human level—without complimenting her looks, or at least not directly—you will make her day, and you'll feel great.

So it's very simple. Pick out a woman, either standing in line next to you or in the grocery store—wherever you are—and say the following:

> "Excuse me, I just wanted to tell you, if I hadn't already found my person, I would jump through a hoop to get a date with you. You are fantastic."

It's that simple.

I know that sounds crazy, so let's go through it.

Start with, "Excuse me." That's perfectly fine to say. I don't care what other schools say. It's just showing simple courtesy.

Then say, "I just wanted to say..." and pause. Pausing creates curiosity.

Continue with, "If I hadn't already met my person..." meaning the person you're with. Or you could say, "If I weren't already in love with the person I'm dating..."

Then finish with:

> "I would jump through a hoop to get a date with you. You are amazing."

One hundred percent of the time, you'll hear something like:

> "Oh my God, that's the most beautiful thing I've ever heard. Thank you—you made my day."

That's all it's designed to do.

Next month, we'll actually get you further along in the interaction so you can build attraction during the conversation and get her ready for a second date.

Do all the missions and post your results in the community area. I want to see how it goes. I'm in there every day answering your questions.

Encourage your fellow guys on the mission, and I'll see you on the other side.
