Speed Seduction Mastery Project
Mission 3 Week 4

Okay, Poon Pounders, I am here for Week Four, Month Three, our final mission of this month, where we're going to show you how to close the deal so she howls and will squeal.

But remember, this is consensual. No use of force, coercion, threats, or mind-altering substances.

That said, here's what we do.

So, we've used our patterns on her on Day Two. Should she be climbing the walls by now? She should be climbing the walls by now. More importantly, climbing on you.

I've had students—and this has happened to me many, many countless times—where the woman says, "Take me to your car," or "How far do you live from here?"

I've had women say to me, "Hey, I've walked by your hotel so many times, but I've never seen any of the rooms. Would you mind if I came up and looked at your room?"

I used to joke that women had this Female Excuse Mechanism, FIM—Female Interference Mechanism. They will interfere with your efforts.

But they also have FIM—Female Invitation Mechanism. They will invite you into their lives, or more importantly, into their vages.

I am so vulgar.

So now it remains: What do we do? How do we close the deal, assuming she doesn't jump on us?

So, we're making out. We're doing all these interesting adult activities. What I like to say is simply, "Let's go somewhere more private," or "Why don't we go somewhere a little more quiet where we can focus in and enjoy?"

Notice I'm being very vague. I'm not saying what we should focus on or what we should enjoy.

So, you're back at her place. You're back at your place. You're back at the hotel, wherever you want to be. It doesn't matter.

Now, what we don't want to do is that slow sneaking up, crawling, putting your arm around her, kind of waiting and lunging in.

Remember, throughout the whole interaction with women, we should be having that physical activity going on. We don't want physical contact to be something we make at the end of a thing called a date.

That is dating-framework bullshit.

We do not do that. That's right out the window.

So, there are all sorts of ways to do this.

I like to just open the door wherever we are, take her coat, take her by the hand, lead her into the bedroom, and that's it.

But I've done things before to take women by surprise. We've made out a little bit. I've said, "You know, I've got to make it an early evening, so why don't I walk you to the door?"

I walk to the door, and I reach for the doorknob. Then I turn around and I grab her and I mack on her. And by that point, there's no resistance.

Same thing if I'm at her place.

Obviously, you can't do this at a hotel.

Now, all sorts of resistance comes up. Let me talk about this.

Let's talk about this whole topic of resistance.

Obviously, if the woman says no, and she's really, really scared, etcetera, etcetera, she doesn't want to continue, we stop.

Oftentimes, I find that women need to be fractionated, meaning they need to be aroused, aroused, aroused, and then they need to stop for a little while. And then when you go back to the activity, they get even more aroused.

We're from zero to 100 right away. You give us a boner, we want to slam right in. That's the nature of men.

If trees had a velvet hole, we'd fuck them.

So we want to fractionate them a little bit.

I like to do things like, "Hey, hey, you know, this is moving a little fast. Let's slow down. Let's slow down. Why don't we watch something on Netflix?"

And usually what happens is she'll knock the thing out of my hand and jump on me, so that kind of thing can be useful.

Now, if a woman does say, "This is going too fast. Stop, stop, stop," I love this answer.

This answer gets them every time.

I say, "Hey, you're totally right. Why don't we just do what we both feel totally comfortable doing?" Or, "Let's only do what we both feel totally comfortable doing."

That works 85, 90% of the time.

Because notice, guys, it's vague. And I always say keep it vague as far as you can.

Why else would this work?

You're not promising to do anything. You're not promising to withhold. You're not promising to go forward. You leave it vague.

"Only what we both feel comfortable doing."

That could be whips, chains, ball gags, getting in a tub of Jell-O with five Dalmatians licking your balls and giving you a rusty trombone.

Rusty—look these up. If you don't know these, you're not a real man.

Rusty Trombone, Dirty Sanchez, and Cleveland Steamer.

Do not do the Cleveland Steamer without express written consent and a third-party verification.

A non-consensual Cleveland Steamer would be a violation of health codes as well as the Geneva Convention.

All right, so we want to do now our muff-munching stuff.

You should have learned the muff-munching stuff if you were one of the first 10 guys to sign up. It is in your "Best She's Ever Had" report.

And then we do the thumb technique.

We lay her on her belly, slide our thumb into her vagina just a little bit, massage the walls. Drives them up the fucking wall.

By then, honestly, they will verbally say nine times out of 10, "Please, when am I going to feel you inside me?" or, "Please fuck me now."

That's consent.

If a woman says, "Fuck me now," that is verbal consent.

I'm not saying you necessarily have to wait for verbal consent, but verbal consent.

Okay. Now let's deal with diseases.

I say a couple things.

If you don't want to have kids, if you're determined not to have kids, and you're in your 30s, 40s, but you want to play your cards safe, preserve your sperm, put it in a sperm bank, and get a vasectomy.

It's the only way you guarantee you're not going to get a woman pregnant if you're going to ride bareback.

Be very careful. You need to have a discussion about it.

My discussion is: "Listen, I'm really enjoying this up until now, but I do bareback. That's just how I do it at my age. It's the only way I can do it, and we both have to get tested if we're going to go any further."

If she's not willing to get tested, then she's hiding something.

Obviously, this means at my age I don't do one-night stands.

You're an adult. I leave the health verification, the health consequences to you.

Now, in our next week—excuse me, strike that—in the next month, we'll be examining relationship management and other cool topics like that.

But until then, this has been your Guru of Gash.

And enjoy yourself. Go out and apply this.
